Intoart is a London-based visual arts organisation working with people with learning disabilities. We have gained significant reputation for our practice working with internationally recognised museums and galleries.

We are seeking new trustees to join the Board of Intoart at this exciting time of growth and ambition of the organisation.

Our diverse and dynamic board members are active in the arts, design, public, commercial and voluntary sectors.

Primary Duties

Trustees are responsible for the governance and strategic direction of the organisation. The Board meets five times a year, normally in the evening; additional time may be required for subgroup committee meetings. Board members are encouraged to attend public facing events, exhibitions and projects of the organisation and be positive advocate of Intoart.

Experience and skills

We are looking to attract candidates with professional experience within the visual arts, education or learning disability sector and/or those with transferable skills from the commercial sector, including financial or management expertise. We are particularly interested in those with skills and expertise in the following five areas:

- Public art gallery/ Museum sector
- Communications/PR
- Development [Private income and Patrons]
- Design industry [Design by Intoart]
- Treasurer role

We are seeking enthusiastic and committed people to join the Board. Experience of previously serving on a Board is not essential.

Intoart's artistic programme consists of six core strands; Studio Programme; Solo Artist Projects; Young people and Mentoring; Intoart Archive; Design By Intoart and a Public programme of exhibitions, events & publishing. Intoart is an Arts Council England National Portfolio Organisation. Registered Charity and Company Limited by Guarantee. www.intoart.org.uk

Additional Information

Board members are volunteers, although out of pocket expenses will be paid. Intoart provides training to Board members to allow them to understand their role and carry out their duties. Intoart operates an equal opportunities policy and encourages diversity across all areas of the organisation.

How to apply

Interested applicants should send their CV with a covering letter giving details of what they feel they will bring to the Board of Intoart.

Email or telephone us should you require any further information about the role of Intoart Trustee.
